

Careers

TAX & ACCOUNTING
HR INTERNATIONAL

LBBH is a multidisciplinary group (www.lbbh.eu) of tax advisors located in Brussels who are specialized in different service lines: corporate, indirect and personal tax.

We have the privilege to serve a wide range of Belgian and international clients, from individuals to quoted companies, active in various fields of activity.

The group is characterized by its human size, allowing for full responsiveness, pro activity and understanding of the client's needs.

All partners and staff have a solid background and experience acquired in major national and international consulting firms.

To support our growth, and reinforce our team, we are looking for:

a junior tax consultant in international mobility [SEE PAGE 2]

What we offer:

- A dynamic and multidisciplinary working environment with a small, ambitious and highly motivated team with a strong team spirit, in an informal, yet very professional atmosphere.
- The opportunity to work on challenging and qualitative international clients.
- The possibility to develop your autonomy and to increase your responsibilities.
- A strong support for developing your skills (permanent coaching, bi-weekly in house information sessions, outdoor seminars, etc.).
- The opportunity to grow within the organization.
- Flexible working hours.
- A very pleasant work environment ideally located in a green area in the South of Brussels accessible by car, train and tram 94.
- An attractive and competitive remuneration package.

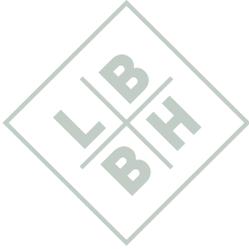

Interested?

Don't hesitate to apply for this job by sending your resume and motivational letter to:

→ International mobility
Marianne Coenderaet
mcoenderaet@lbbh.eu

by copying Anne Vandergoten avandergoten@lbbh.eu

TAX & ACCOUNTING
HR INTERNATIONAL

Junior tax consultant in international mobility

YOUR JOB

- Your role is varied and many-faceted in the field of international mobility covering tax but also social security and labour law aspects.
- Under the supervision and guidance of more experienced team members, you will assist in:
 - the research and preparation of advisory work regarding national and international personal taxation;
 - the preparation of payrolls and gross-to-net computations in an international context (expatriation, split payrolls, secondment...);
 - the preparation of resident and non-resident tax returns and other compliance work.
- Gradually, you will have direct contacts with the tax and social security authorities and will build up a more overall responsibility on the client portfolio.

YOUR PROFILE

- You have a Master degree in a business-related discipline such as law or applied economics or a comparable background (e.g. bachelor degree accountancy-tax).
 - One or two years of relevant fiscal experience or a postgraduate or complementary master qualification in tax are a strong asset.
 - You are highly motivated and have a definite interest in international personal tax matters.
 - You are a team player.
 - You are creative, client minded and looking for practical solutions.
 - You have a strong feeling with numbers and are advanced Excel user.
 - You are problem-solving minded.
 - You are accurate and have excellent planning / task management skills.
 - You are willing to improve your technical knowledge and develop your professional skills.
 - You have an excellent working knowledge of French and English. A good knowledge of Dutch is an asset.
-
-